

Project Proposal

1. Project Scope & Architecture

CreditGuard AI consists of a Flask application factory utilizing serialized scikit-learn models preloaded at container startup. Telemetries are logged to an SQLite database, and session security is managed via bcrypt password encryption. The application is designed to deploy on stateless serverless hosting (Vercel) by redirecting all write logs and database transactions to the /tmp folder.